

Issue 4 August 2005

Pabay philatelic news

Actual size 37 x 65mm

A new stamp and First Day Cover will be issued on 23rd August 2005 to coincide with the Royal Mail issue on the same day, A Celebration of Food. The stamp shows creel baskets, against the background of the Cullen Hills of Skye. The issue is sponsored by “Creelers of Skye” located in Broadford. From the restaurant over looking Broadford Bay you have breathtaking views of the bay and the Island of Pabay. Visit Creelers and chose from their inspired and ever changing menu which includes world-renowned seafood specialities as well as non-seafood, vegetarian and children’s dishes.

Using only the highest quality and freshest of local ingredient, such as shellfish and sea food straight from the crystal clear waters of Skye and Lochalsh, as well as game and poultry sourced locally wherever possible, Creelers take the preparation and serving of your food very seriously indeed.

Creelers Seafood Restaurant is located just by the Skye Serpentarium in Broadford.
